

HYDRO ONE
FIRE SAFETY TRAINING

You must answer 20 out of 25 questions correctly to pass the course (80%). You will be given an opportunity to take the assessment three times.

You must answer all of the questions in the assessment for an attempt to count.

Print Name

Date

Question 1 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

A grease fire can be extinguished by _____

- pouring water on it
- covering it with a lid
- taking it off the stove

Question 2 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

What class of fire does this picture represent?

- Class A
- Class B
- Class C

Question 3 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

What does the numerical rating on a fire extinguisher indicate?

- The square feet of fire that the extinguisher can put out
- The weight of the extinguisher when fully charged
- The distance that you should be from the fire

Question 4 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

Which of the following represents a Class C fire?

- A burning wall outlet
- Burning kerosene
- A woodstove

Question 5 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

What maintenance procedure should be performed monthly on a smoke detector?

- Change the batteries
- Move it to another location
- Test that it is working

Question 6 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

What are dry chemicals and carbon dioxide an example of?

- Combustible fuels
- Extinguishing agents
- Flammable gases

Question 7 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

Any fire extinguisher can be used on all classes of fire.

- True
- False

Question 8 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

If you do not know how to use the available fire extinguisher and there is a fire, what should you do?

- Leave the area and call the fire department
- Find someone who does know how to use it
- Examine the extinguisher for instructions

Question 9 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

Which fire extinguisher is the best choice for home and work?

- Class AB
- Class BC
- Class ABC

Question 10 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

Where should smoke detectors be located?

- Near sleeping areas
- Where there are no fire extinguishers
- Only in the kitchen

Question 11 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

What must be established before fire fighters can extinguish a station fire?

- The size of the fire
- The type of equipment involved
- A safe work area

Question 12 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

Under which condition should you always leave the building and call the fire department?

- If the fire is small
- If the fire is spreading
- If you have an escape route

Question 13 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

When using a fire extinguisher, you should _____.

- aim at the flames
- start extinguishing in the middle of the fire
- aim low on the fire

Question 14 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

A fire in a pot of cooking oil is an example of which class of fire?

- Class A
- Class B
- Class C

Question 15 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

An evacuation plan is only necessary at work.

- True
- False

Question 16 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

The chemical reaction that produces fire is called _____.

- agent
- heat
- combustion

Question 17 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

Which of the following extinguishing agents blocks oxygen and eliminates heat from a fire?

- Dry chemicals
- Carbon dioxide
- Water

Question 18 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

Fire extinguishers typically contain a small amount of extinguishing agent.

- True
- False

Question 19 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

Paint does not pose a fire hazard.

- True
- False

Question 20 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

At home, fire extinguishers are only necessary in the kitchen.

- True
- False

Question 21 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

How can you prevent fireplace sparks from causing a fire?

- Use a fire screen
- Keep the fire small
- Use dry wood

Question 22 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

For what type of fire does Hydro One require a written report?

- Only large fires
- Station fires
- All fires

Question 23 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

How does a dry chemical extinguisher put out a fire?

- By coating the fuel and eliminating oxygen
- By eliminating the fire's heat
- By displacing the fuel

Question 24 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

Water puts out fires by _____.

- interfering with the chemical chain reaction
- displacing oxygen
- eliminating heat

Question 25 of 25

Answer the following question. When you are done, click «Submit».

Fire is a visible side effect of _____.

- heat and light
- matter changing form
- oxygen and heat